DHH files action against Christian County, DAP Properties

Douglas, Haun and Heidemann P.C. attorneys Donald Brown and Craig

Heidemann have filed an action requesting the judicial review of a Christian County Board of Adjustment decision authorizing a conditional use permit for a drug rehabilitation/treatment facility. The motion, filed in March on behalf of Thomas and Cheryl Moeglin, David and Kay McCroskey, James Atteberry and Gerald and Kay Cook, requests the conditional permit awarded to DAP Properties be denied and the case be reconsidered from the beginning by the Christian County Zoning Commission.

The motion lists Christian County, Christian County Board of Adjustment, Christian County Planning and Zoning Commission

Executive Secretary and DAP Properties, LLC as the defendants.

Stanek previously worked as the Senior Prosecutor with the Greene County Prosecutor's Office, the City Prosecutor for Bolivar, and has practiced criminal law across southwest Missouri. He is a member of The Springfield Metropolitan Bar Association and The Missouri Bar. Stanek primarily practices in the area of criminal law, defending the rights of clients across Missouri.

Stanek attained a juris doctorate in 2011 from the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

Currently, Stanek serves on the Springfield Greene County Landmarks Board and has been actively involved with Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Ozarks, Rotaract and The Bolivar Area Chamber of Commerce.

DHH Volunteers at Convoy of Hope

On May 8, 2018, Douglas, Haun & Heidemann, P.C. employees had the privilege to volunteer at Convoy of Hope's World Distribution Center. DHH has partnered with Convoy of Hope to volunteer and help with a worthy cause of helping Convoy of Hope's mission to help others around the world in disaster responses and feeding the hungry. DHH attorneys and staff helped sort, pack, count and label items that are distributed worldwide.

No luck needed at the annual Administrative Professionals luncheon

The Administrative Professionals at Douglas, Haun and Heidemann P.C. were treated to a Las Vegas style luncheon for Administrative Professionals Day. Complete with DHH BINGO cards and giveaways for all, these members of our team enjoyed a day of games and leisure. While they were all winners, we know that our attorneys and you – our clients – are the real winners because of the hard work and dedication each of them bring each and every day to DHH. Thank you to our Administrative Professionals for everything you do!
